

- _____ 11. A security officer should always observe the following when operating a security vehicle:
- a. Security officers may use their emergency lights if they are in a hurry to take care of a personal errand along their patrol route
 - b. Security officers should observe all applicable speed limits, traffic laws and rules-of-the-road while operating a security vehicle
 - c. It is permissible for a security officer to use the security vehicle's spotlight for other than for its intended use
 - d. Both a and c
- _____ 12. The following information should be communicated to the security officer on vehicle patrol through the post instructions:
- a. Which route(s) the officer can choose from while on vehicle patrol
 - b. The time the security officer can end his shift if all his/her patrols are completed
 - c. Individuals that need to be contacted should an emergency arise
 - d. Which buildings the officer can inspect if he/she has time